

Courtesy of Forsyth County Public Library Photograph Collection

H .L. Martin of Walkertown discs tobacco stalks into the ground in 1939 to prevent tobacco pests such as hornworm.

*Take a break from the usual ...
Join us at the next meeting of the*

Walkertown Area Historical Society

on Tuesday, Jan. 20, at 6:30 p.m.at the Walkertown Public Library.

Molly Rawls will give a presentation on "Winston-Salem - Then and Now" which also is the title of her new book.

*What do you recollect of the Walkertown area's history?
What would you like to know?*

Visit our Web site at www.WalkertownAreaHistoricalSociety.org